

The Fall of the Middle Kingdom

The Hyksos were merchants and traders that came from the east and settled in the Nile delta, in the city of Avaris. Eventually, the Hyksos claimed the right to rule Southern Egypt. By this point, Thebes was not strong enough to stop them. The days of the Middle Kingdom had come to an end.