

Who Was the Pharaoh?

The pharaohs were the supreme leaders of all of Egypt. They owned all the lands in Egypt, and they were responsible for defending and protecting them. To do this, they commanded the armies of Egypt and also created and enforced all the laws of the land.